A stunning new take on this timeless carol, as only Dan Forrest can do, beginning with the smallest and simplest of musical ideas to paint "Silent Night... all is calm", then gradually building into an overwhelming statement of the profoundest of truths: "Christ, the Savior, is born." A must-have for Christmas concerts for this year, and years to come. Scored for TTBB choir, piano, and optional string quartet or full orchestra. (Recording above is SATB version). A gentle instrumental introduction sets the stage for this setting of the classic Christmas carol, continuing under the familiar text with a quiet intensity as it builds to the strong statement of purpose, "Christ the Savior is born", then quietly rests in the strength of that truth. Now available for TTBB Choir, piano, string quartet or full orchestra as well as SSAA Choir, piano and string quartet. Companion products (digital downloads): Companion products (printed copies): Also available in other voicings: Silent Night - Forrest - SATB Silent Night - Forrest - SSAA WILBERG, M - Oxford University Press for tenor soloist and TTBB choir, unaccompanied Very effective, this arrangement using gently blending vocal lines evokes wonderful imagery.
